Christmas Plans Started; Ball for Miss Clara Ottis

Gay Week-End Expected, With the Holiday Falling on Friday—Groups to Give Dance.

THE Christmas holiday season, always the busiest for society, is approaching, and with the coming of the first snow this week came the announcement of the dates for various functions.

The group of debutantes promises to be an interesting one, and tentative plans include three teas to be given in December, when young women will be formally presented to society.

With Christmas coming on Friday this year, the week-end will be a gay and festive one. Dates are being set rapidly by hostesses in order that there will be no conflict in the time of parties.

Christmas evening has been chosen for a dancing party to be given by the following young women: the Misses Mary Stutz, Nancy Okie, Mary Driscoll, Harriet Ingersoll, Dorothy French, Eleanor How and Henrietta Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Ottis will give a ball for their daughter, Miss Clara Louise Ottis, on the evening of Tuesday, December 23, at the Saint Paul.

The evening of Wednesday, December 30, has been set for the appearance of the Princeton University Triangle club in St. Paul. It is expected the Yale Banjo and Glee clubs, whose presence enhanced holiday gaiety last winter in the Twin Cities, may again come West. The performance of the Yale men has for a number of years been accompanied by a large holiday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Warren Hill, 260 Summit avenue.

Give Surprise Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Philip F. McQuillan, 26 Kenwood parkway, were the guests of honor at an informal surprise party given by a group of their friends Saturday evening. The occasion was in celebration of Mr. and Mrs. McQuillan's wedding anniversary.

Miss James and Mr. Stronge Name Attendants for Wedding; Marriage Set for November 10

MISS Florence James and her fiancé, Sidney R. Stronge, announced on Saturday the bridal attendants for their marriage, which will take place Tuesday, November 10, at the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Portland avenue and Kent street.

The ceremony will take place at 5 P. M. with the rector, Rev. Frederick D. Butler, officiating. After the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Young, 707 Fairmount avenue.

Mr. Stronge is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stronge, 355 Summit avenue.

Miss Anne Darling, of Gardiner, Me., will be Miss James' maid of honor, and Alexander Revell of Chicago will be Mr. Stronge's best man. Mrs. Thomas L. Wann, Jr. (Elizabeth Clarkson), will be matron of honor and the bridesmaids will be the Misses Harriette Allen, Eleanor Bailey, Margaret Budd and Marie Hamm. The ushers will be Edward Floan, Ralph Boalt, Joseph McKibbin, Thomas L. Wann, Jr., St. Paul; Arthur Burrows, Chicago; Paige Lehman, Minneapolis, a cousin of Miss James, and Charles Wiman, Moline, Ill.

Miss Darling will arrive November 1 from her home to be the guest of Miss James.

Wedding in January.
Mr. and Mrs. William P. Kenney, 804 Lincoln avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice, to Henry Louis Orme, son of Mrs James G. Donnelly, 1132 Portland avenue. Miss Kenney was graduated in June from the College of St. Catherine. Mr. Orme was graduated from the Catholic university, Washington, D.

C. The wedding will take place in January.

Announce Engagement.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Griffin Dodge, 2301 Pleasant avenue, Minneapolis, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Bowne, to Harry S. Temple, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mortimer Temple, 891 Fairmount avenue.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Dodge is a graduate of Northrup Collegiate school, Minneapolis.

apolis; Pine Manor, Wellesley, Mass., and the University of Minnesota. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Temple was graduated from Dartmouth college, Hanover, N. H., in 1924.

Announcement of the engagement was made at an informal luncheon which Miss Dodge gave Saturday afternoon at her home. Guests were 12 of her most intimate friends.

Guests From China.
Mr. and Mrs. George A. Booth of Harbin, Manchuria, North China, arrived Thursday and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen H. Stem, Dellwood, White Bear lake. Mrs. Booth was formerly Miss Lucy Cosey of Indianapolis, and is a niece of Mrs. Stem.

In compliment to Mrs. Booth, Mrs. Morton Barrows, 912 Lincoln avenue, entertained at an informal tea Friday afternoon.

To Give Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. John F. Scott, 1071 St. Clair street, will be hosts at dinner Saturday at their home.

IN THE PICTURES

THE garden of the Mitchell home made an attractive background for a picture of Mrs. William De Witt Mitchell, wife of the solicitor general of the United States, William De Witt Mitchell, which was taken shortly before Mrs. Mitchell's departure from St. Paul for Washington where she again will take up her duties as one of the hostesses this season. The Solicitor General and Mrs. Mitchell are at home at 2129 Le Roy Place, Washington.

Mrs. Albert W. Lindeke, 345 Summit avenue, Mrs. William C. Koch, 797 Goodrich avenue, and Miss Josephine Benz, 142 Mississippi River boulevard, are alumnae of Smith college and with members of the Smith College club and their friends, are taking part in making the first of the season's benefit affairs October 22, 23 and 24, a success. The project will be a rummage sale. Mrs. Charles Putnam and Mrs. William Merritt are in charge of the sale.

Mrs. Frederick M. Owens, 1425 Summit avenue, and Miss Dora Jefferson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Jefferson, 1126 Summit avenue, will be special hostesses for the first concert of the season Thursday night at the Peoples church under the auspices of the Schubert club, when Queena Mario will be the soloist. Other hostesses will be Mrs. George C. Bookstaver, Mrs. Frederick L. Pactzold, Miss Elizabeth Dorsey, and Miss Marion Anderson.
