Furnishings Valued at Several Thousand Dollars Taken From Martin Home.

Household goods valued at several thousand dollars were stolen from the home of Gerald R. Martin, 2368 Lake of the Isles boulevard, some time in the last 20 days while the family has been living in its summer home at Lake Minnetonka, Mr. Martin reported to the police late yesterday.

Part of the loot was a supply of liquor from the cellar. Rugs were removed from the floors and carried away, silverware from the diningroom, cut glass, valuable garments and furniture also were taken.

Entrance was effected through a basement window. The thieves expected to return for more loot, the police believe.
