

MACON

OME—"Mill Crest," the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Mickleham, at Lin-dale, presented a beautiful scene Wednesday evening, the occasion being the wedding of Miss Nell Junkin and Mr. Hamilton Yancey, Jr. This event was one of exceptional interest in itself, and it was doubly noteworthy because of the artistic perfection in every detail of the decorations, conspicuous in which were mistletoe, holly and other Christ-mas greens.

Mrs. Bertha Heustis sang "O Fair, O Sweet and Holy," just before the approach of the bridal party, which entered by Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mr. Howard Tinsley. Messrs. H. P. Meikleham, Ned Grafton, Hugh Caperton and Robert Yancey formed the aisle with ribbons. Misses Mary Junkin and Sarah Yancey, bridesmaids, entered together. Both wore yellow gowns and carried red carnations. These were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Ann Junkin, all in white with white carnations as a bouquet. The groom was attended by Mr. Ben Yancey, best man. The bride, in her becom-ing bridal robe of white crepe de chine en-tered with her brother, Mr. Grafton Jun-kin. Dr. G. G. Sydun and Dr. Dickey, of Oxford, performed the ceremony.

A delicious supper was served in the dining hall. The appointments of the bridal table were most effective, the bride's cake being particularly pretty.

At 9 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Yancey left for a bridal journey of ten days.