

REV. JESSE KELLEMS

Rev. Kellems To Be Feted This Sunday

Rev. Jesse Randolph Kellems, pastor of the Westwood Hills Christian Church, will be honored Sunday by the congregation on his 70th birthday.

The Rev. Kellems, who founded the church on the edge of the UCLA campus in 1941, will return to the pulpit Sunday after a six-week vacation.

A reception in honor of the pastor and his wife will be held in the church social hall Sunday from 7 to 9 p.m. The event also will celebrate the 33rd wedding anniversary of the Kellems.

A minister for 52 years, the Rev. Mr. Kellems served in the State Legislature for six years before he began his Westwood ministry. While a member of the legislature, he preached Sundays at a Los Angeles church.

He is currently serving as state chaplain for the Masonic Order.

The Rev. Mr. Kellems' message during the 9:30 and 11 a.m. Sunday services is titled "Three Score Years and Ten," based on Psalm 90:10.
