Gerald R. Martin Elected to Sugar Company Board

Gerald R. Martin, Minneapolis grain merchant, was elected as a director of the South Coast Co., one of the country's largest sugar producing corporations, at the annual meeting of its stockholders, according to word reaching Minneapolis Monday. Mr. Martin, a member of the Minneapolis chamber of commerce, is vice president of the Brooks Elevator Co., vice president of the Union Elevator Co., general manager of the Superior Feed Co. and a director of several affiliated corporations. The South Coast Co. is engaged in a sugar development project which is said to be the largest in Louisiana. Three other new directors, added to the board with Mr. Martin, were H. P. Hayden of Detroit, J. K. Shaw of Chicago and Dr. A. H. Rosenfeld of New Orleans.
