

Yancey-Hewlett

The marriage of Miss Sarah Hamilton Yancey to Mr. Samuel Dunbar Hewlett was a brilliant event of the week in Rome, taking place Wednesday evening at half-past 6 o'clock at the First Methodist church, Dr. L. T. Johnson officiating.

The altar was banked with ferns brightened with feathery white chrysanthemums and the lovely green of smilax.

The groomsmen and bridesmaids entered alternately and formed a semi-circle, the pretty costumes of the young women brought into strong relief by the black suits of the groomsmen and the massed foliage in the background.

Miss Yancey entered with her father, Mr. Hamilton Yancey, and was met at the altar by Mr. Hewlett and his best man, Mr. Robert Woodward, of New York.

The bride, who is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Yancey, was a picture of lovely womanhood in her wedding gown, an exquisite creation of chiffon satin trimmed with lace. Her bouquet was a shower effect of lilies of the valley and her veil was held in place by sprays of the same dainty little blossoms.

Miss Mary Lou Yancey, who was maid of honor, was also in white, a bouquet of bridesmaids roses giving a lovely bit of color to her becoming toilette.

Mrs. Robert Yancey was matron of honor and wore a white lace robe and carried pink roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss M. A. Phelan, Miss Marianne Hamilton, of Birmingham; Miss Elizabeth Harris, of Cedar-town; Miss Agnese Harris and Miss Patterson, of Macon; Miss Mary Jenkins, Miss Miriam Reynolds and Miss Edwina Williams, of Rome. They wore frocks of white point d'esprit over taffeta slips and carried armsful of pink roses.

The groomsmen were Mr. Robert Keely, Mr. Verstill Glenn, Dr. R. T. Dorsey, Mr. Andrew Calhoun, Mr. Austell Thornton, Mr. Bowdre Phinizy, of Augusta; Mr. George Foote, of Ozark, Ala., and Mr. Dan G. Yancey, of Rome.

After the ceremony a reception was held at "Clearmont," the lovely old home which has ben en fete for generations of Yanceys.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Hewlett left for New York. After the 18th they will be at home at the Marlborough.
