A. A. Page Heads New Officers and Directors—Dow George, Alec Stephens Re-engaged as Professionals.

The Minneapolis Golf club, about to enter the new year with decks cleared in election of new officers and directors, henceforth will concentrate on the state tournament, which the club will entertain next summer for the first time in its history.

A. A. Page was elected president of the club at the annual meeting last week. B. V. Moore is vice president, with C. Paul Tracy, secretary, and M. D. Chandler, treasurer.

George Carleton and Paul Loudon are the new members of the board of directors, to which H. C. Atwood and A. A. Page were re-elected. Other members of the board are W. H. Godwin, Dr. F. C. Rodda, S. M. Lyman, George Dickson and A. M. Bernard.

The club has worked for years toward the state tournament goal and now that the meet has been landed is laying plans to make it one of the best ever held. The date of the tourney will be set for dates which will not conflict with other meets.

Dow George, who has been the club professional for years, has been re-engaged for 1925, as has Alec Stephens, the assistant pro.
