

• Sarah is President of the Young Matrons' Circle, and

Mrs. Florence Yancey Newton Weds Barry Wright in Rome

ROME—An announcement of cordial interest to society is that of the marriage of Mrs. Florence Yancey Newton to Barry Wright which took place here at the Yancey home, Claremont, yesterday.

Dr. Carl Reiland, of Lindale, former rector of St. George Church of New York, officiated at the service which was witnessed only by members of the immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright left immediately for Havana, Cuba, and after March 1 they will occupy

Mr. Wright's home on the old Lindale road.

Mrs. Wright is the daughter of the late Col. and Mrs. Hamilton

Yancey, her mother being the former Miss Florence Patterson, of Macon. She is the sister of Mrs. Samuel Hewlett, of Atlanta; Mrs. Donald B. Gillies, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Austin Clark, of Pittsburgh. Hamilton Yancey, of Rome, is her brother.

Mr. Wright, a prominent Rome Attorney, is the father of Mrs. W. Carl Lohmeyer, of Baltimore, Mrs. L. A. Gulley, of Birmingham, and Barry Wright, Jr., a law student at the University of Virginia. He is the eldest son of the late Seaborn and Anna Moore Wright, of Rome.

University Women