

ROBINSON, Harry Leigh, wholesale fruits and produce; born at Leon, Wis., Feb. 22, 1869; son of Henry J. and Cynthia E. Robinson; removed to Minnesota with parents, 1870; graduated from Owatonna (Minn.) High School. Began active career in grocery business at Owatonna, 1887; located in Minneapolis, 1891, and entered fruit and produce commission business, 1892. Secretary and treasurer Gamble-Robinson Commission Co., Minneapolis, and similar companies at St. Paul, Aberdeen and Rochester, Minn.; president Gamble-Robinson Fruit-Produce Co., Mankato, Minn., and secretary and treasurer Merchants' Cold Storage Co., Minneapolis. Republican. Congregationalist. Member Minneapolis and St. Paul Produce exchanges. National League Commission Merchants, Western Fruit Jobbers Association, formerly president of North Western Fruit Jobbers' Assn. and vice president Minnesota Receivers and Shippers' Assn. Member Royal Arcanum. Married at Minneapolis, Jan. 27, 1897, to Miss Irene A. Allen. Recreation: Travel. Office: 222-226 6th St., N. Residence: 1609 Portland Av., Minneapolis.

ROBINSON, Josiah L., manufacturer and jobber of vehicles and agricultural implements; born at Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 9, 1852; son of Israel W. and Cornelia (Leonard) Robinson; moved to Delaven, Ill., with parents when a child; educated at State Normal School, Bloomington, Ill. Entered manufacture of buggies and vehicles, at Freeport, Ill., 1873, and has continued on large scale at various points, removing to Minneapolis, 1906. President Robinson-Miller Co., organized 1901, wholesale vehicles and implements, Minneapolis, Minn.; Mutual Wheel Co., Moline, Ill.; Consolidated Implement Co., Kansas City, Mo.; Robinson Manufacturing Co., Freeport, Ill.; also director Freeport, (Ill.) Gas Light & Coke Co. Republican. Married at Racine, Wis., Aug., 1905, to Miss Ada G. Stone. Office: 300 Wash. Av., N. Residence: Hennepin Av. and 11th St., Minneapolis.

ROBINSON, Lewis A., comptroller Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Ry.; born at Glens Falls, N. Y., July 5, 1856; son of Frederick W. and Lovisa (Cool) Robinson; educated in private school at Glens Falls, and Williamstown, Mass. Entered service of Chicago & Northwestern Ry., 1873, and filled position of paymaster's clerk, shop clerk, traveling auditor, general bookkeeper and paymaster; was auditor Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Ry., 1886-Dec. 31, 1896; has been comptroller, same road since Jan. 1, 1897. Secretary Minnesota Transfer Ry. Co.; auditor Minneapolis Eastern Ry. Member Board of Park Commissioners. Married at St. Paul, 1889, to Miss Lucy Gault. Clubs: Minnesota, Town and Country, Transportation. Recreation: Golf. Office: Rosabel N. W. Cor. 4th St. Residence: 707 Fairmount Av., St. Paul.

ROBINSON, L(ouis) Sidney Bassford, physician; born in Illinois, July 17, 1873; son of Sydney Turner and Mary L. (Bassford) Robinson; educated at Chicago Manual Training school, 1888-90, by tutor, 1890-91, Harvard Medical School, M.D., 1901; unmarried. Druggist Adirondack Cottage Sanitarium one year, 1902; house officer Boston City Hospital, two years, 1903-04; in general practice of medicine in St. Paul since 1904. Member Harvard Chapter of Delta Upsilon, Loyal Legion, 1st class (by inheritance). Clubs: Harvard of Minnesota, St. Paul Commercial. Office: 624 Selby Av. Residence: 638 Ashland Av., St. Paul.

ROBSON, James Harvey, banker; born at Geneva, Freeborn Co., Minn., Feb. 26, 1858; son of Capt. James Alexander and Martha (Partridge) Robson; educated in village school at Geneva. Reared and worked on a farm until 19 years of age; entered store of brother-in-law at Owatonna, Minn., as delivery boy, advancing until he became partner and ultimately successor in the business, 1895, conducting the store until he entered banking business, April 2, 1906. President of The Security State Bank; vice president The Josten Manufacturing Co. of Owatonna; the Mouse River Bank of Towner, N. D.; also interested in the Kelly Co. of Owatonna. Republican. Universalist. Club: Commercial. Office: Broadway, cor. Cedar St. Residence: 217 E. Rice St., Owatonna, Minn.

RODEARMEL, Montgomery Gallagher, manufacturers' agent; born at Freeport, Ill., Sept. 17, 1858; son of Jacob and Jane (Gallagher) Rodearmel; educated in Freeport public schools; Nevada, (Iowa), public schools; Iowa State Agricultural College and business college, Marshalltown, Ia. Became member of the firm of Livingston & Rodearmel, Nevada and Cambridge, Ia., 1880; disposed of interest to partner, 1885, and remained out of business until 1889, when he started the business in which he is now engaged, representing twenty-five manufacturers of hardware, cutlery and kindred goods to jobbers in Minnesota, N. and S. Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri with a few points in Illinois and Wisconsin. Stockholder Stover Manufacturing Co., Freeport, Ill., and Big Casino G. M. Co., San Francisco, Calif.; president Interstate M. & M. Co., Spokane, Wash.; director Kansas Lime Co., Vilas, Kas. Republican. Member Masonic order. U. C. T. of America. Married at Minneapolis, Minn., May, 1885, to Lou Waldron. Clubs: Commercial (Minneapolis), Commercial (St. Paul). Recreations: Hunting and fishing. Office: Commercial Bldg. Residence: 2300 Colfax Av., S., Minneapolis.

RODENBERG, George W., State manager United States Life Insurance Co., of New York; born at Hanover, Germany, Nov. 12, 1861; son of Gerhardt and Fredericka (Frischmuth) Rodenberg; came to America early in life and was educated in public schools of Cin-