

of modern roads.

Flying sparks on roofs yesterday caused damages estimated by the fire department at $1,000. At the residence of W. J. Cronin, 1824 Banks avenue, $800 damages were caused to the building and $200 to contents. In another blaze, at 2002 Banks avenue, the house owned by Mrs. P. C. Boyle and occupied by H. D. Conway, was damaged to the extent of $200.