

THE F. C. PILLSBURY ESTATE

The Late Fred C. Pillsbury Left Behind Him About $250,000.

The filing of the inventory and appraisement in the estate of Fred C. Pillsbury does not show up as large an estate as the public generally believed Mr. Pillsbury's to be. The total appraisement is placed at $165,210.12 when it was supposed the estate was worth at least $500,000. This difference, however, is partially explained by the fact that the homestead belongs to Mrs. Pillsbury and was valued at about $65,000, while the insurance on Mr. Pillsbury's life was about as much more. It is believed that the total amount of the estate, when all the values are determined, will be about $250,000. The principal items in the appraisers' report are as follows:

Real estate, $18,000; 884 shares preferred stock Pillsbury-Washburn Company, $27,868; 147 bonds Pillsbury-Washburn Company, $60,601; 883 shares ordinary stock Pillsbury-Washburn stock, $12,860; 50 shares Swedish-American Bank, $6,500; furniture, $6,370; 50 shares Empire Elevator Company, $6,250; 50 shares Atlantic Elevator Company, $5,000; 63 shares Pettijohn Breakfast Food Company, $4,725; 10 shares First National Bank, $1,500; one membership chamber of commerce, $500.
