

SURPRISE TO MANY

Mrs. Alice Pillsbury Married to Eugene W. Paige at Danville, Vt., Yesterday.

Announcement Comes as a Surprise to Many of Mrs. Pillsbury's Friends Here.

The marriage of Mrs. Alice Pillsbury to Eugene W. Paige of New York was solemnized very quietly yesterday at the summer home of the bride's daughter, Mrs. Harold Osgood Ayers, at Danville, Vt. Altho the approaching marriage had not been kept a secret from Mrs. Pillsbury's circle of intimate friends, it will be a surprise to many. Her family are all in Danville for the wedding and Misses Helen and Alice will remain with their mother in Danville for the summer.

Mrs. Pillsbury was the widow of Fred C. Pillsbury of the wealthy flour milling family, and is the daughter of Mrs. H. T. Goodwin of Minneapolis. Mr. Paige is an old family friend, and was brought up near Danville, which is the bride's family home. He is a man of wealth, is also in the flour business, and is a frequent visitor in Minneapolis. It is probable that the family will retain the Pillsbury residence in Minneapolis as a winter home for the next few years at least, but will spend their summers at some point accessible from New York.
