

MARY HUNTINGTON AND ROBERT E. GRAY TO WED IN WINTER

Engagement Announced by Mother at Taylor-Huntington Wedding Reception

BRIDE-TO-BE CAUGHT
SISTER'S BRIDAL BOUQUET

Miss Eleanor Sewall Betrothed to William Lloyd Prosser of Minneapolis

PREDICTIONS are that the late autumn and early winter social season will be made interesting by many nuptial events.

Mrs. George R. Huntington, 2208 Irving avenue S., announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary, to Robert E. Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs.
O. H. Gray, 2361 Lake of the Isles boulevard. The wedding is to take place early in the winter.

The old superstition about catching the bride's bouquet never asserted itself on shorter notice than when Miss Huntington caught the shower bouquet of her sister, Mrs. Edmund George Taylor (Jane Huntington) as Mrs. Taylor tossed it among her girl friends after her wedding Monday night at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. I. V.
Gedney, on Knox avenue S. By catching the bouquet, Miss Huntington was destined to be the next bride in her circle of friends.

The announcement of the engagement of her daughter was made by Mrs.
Huntington at the Taylor-Huntington wedding reception, thus giving the friends of the family an opportunity to extend felicitations not only to a bride and bridegroom, but also to a bride and bridegroom-to-be. Miss Huntington, like her sister, was a student at Wells college.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Sewall, 224 Ridgewood avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor, to William Lloyd Prosser, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Prosser of the Oak Grove hotel. Miss Sewall is a graduate of Vassar College. Her fiance was graduated from Harvard University, class of 1918.

Mrs. Alson A. Fisher of Toronto announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Isabel, to Leslie Parry Lugadin of this city. Miss Fisher is the daughter of the late Judge Alson A.
Fisher of Pembroke, Ont. Mr. Lugadin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H.
Lugadin, 1808 Emerson avenue S.

To attend the wedding of Miss Elsie Freeman, daughter of Rt. Rev.
James E. Freeman, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Freeman, formerly of Minneap-

