

Clarence A. Davis, Contractor, Dies

Clarence A. Davis, 2628 Dupont avenue S., Minneapolis construction contractor for 20 years, died yesterday in Asbury hospital after an illness of several months. Mr. Davis was born in Champlin, Minn., and came to the city with his parents when a child. He attended the public schools and in the World war served 18 months in Italy as a captain in the Red Cross division. He is survived by his wife, Gertrude, two children, Calvin and Jean, and a brother, Charles G. Davis of Los Angeles. Funeral services will be in Lakewood chapel Tuesday at 11:30 a.m.