MR. AND MRS. FRANK P. LESLIE of Maplewoods, Lake Minnetonka, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary to Frederic H. Corrigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Corrigan, 1716 West Thirty-first street.

Another date has been added to the ever growing list of midsummer weddings. Miss Betty Vogel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Melvin A. Vogel, 5042 Bryant avenue S., has chosen Monday, July 17, as the date for her marriage to Gerhard Becker, son of Mrs. Bernard Becker, 509 Forest avenue. The ceremony and reception will take place at the Lafayette Club, Minnetonka Beach.

For Miss Ruth Olive Bradshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Bradshaw of Maplewood, Lake Minnetonka, and her fiance David Barr Paulson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Paulson, 5021 Dupont avenue S., and Minnetonka Beach, Lake Minnetonka, a dinner party will be given Thursday evening by Miss Natalie Johnston at the Minikahda Club. Invitations have been sent for the wedding of Miss Bradshaw and Mr. Paulson which is to take place Saturday evening June 3, at the Bradshaw home in the presence of only the immediate relatives and a few close friends. Mrs. Carson F. Jamieson will attend her sister as matron of honor and Dawson Bradshaw, Jr., brother of Miss Bradshaw, will attend Mr. Paulson as best man. Miss Susan Mary Shuman will be bridesmaid and Louise Jamieson and her brother Thomas Jamieson, niece and nephew of Miss Bradshaw, will be flower girl and ringbearer, respectively.

Plans for the coming Memorial Day, May 30, and the preceding weekend are already under way. At the Minikahda, Interlachen, Lafayette and Woodhill Country club special golf programs for the day have been planned. Many will be hosts to guests at their summer homes for the holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Crouch, Jr., 1903 Mount Curve avenue, will open their summer home at Alexandria that weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. MacFarlane, Jr., and their son, Warren C. III., have returned to their home in Moline, Ill. Mrs. MacFarlane and her son visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crouch, while Mr. MacFarlane accompanied his father on a trip to South America.

The formal opening of the season at Encampment Forest, near Two Harbors, Minn., will take place on Memorial Day. Walter C. Leach, president of the organization, and Mrs. Leach, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spafford and many other of the cabin owners plan to go north for the weekend. Returned travelers from winter stays are Mrs. Charles J. Winton, 1324 Mount Curve avenue, and Mrs. W. D. Gregory, 2733 Park avenue, back from Honolulu where they spent the winter. Mrs. Winton visited in San Francisco for a week en route home from the west coast.
