

Palomino Queen Will Be Crowned

Patricia Paetzel, chosen queen of Minnesota Palomino horse exhibitors, will award

Miss Paetzel prizes and ribbons at the 12th annual Minnesota Palomino horse show Sunday at the Bayport, Minn. fair grounds. The show is co-sponsored by the Bayport Jaycees and the Minnesota Palomino Horse Exhibitors association. Thirty-two classes will run all day, with halter classes at 9 a.m., and performance classes at 1:30 p.m.

Miss Paetzel was elected queen by the association at an April meeting in Bayport Yacht club. She will be crowned at Sunday's show. Miss Paetzel will be a senior at St. Cloud, Minn., State college in the fall.

She has been riding and showing in local and state horse shows since she was 2, under the training of her mother and aunt. She lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paetzel at Inglebrae, Medicine Lake.

Miss Paetzel, who is on the staff of the Crystal Village summer playground committee, will exhibit her two year-old filly palomino Tonioh Sunday.
