1929 · Page 2

Son's Death Crushing Blow to Giant of Business World

Scores of Detectives Probe Into Past Relations of Millionaire, Secretary for Murder Motive

Victim of Slayer

STEELCASE DESKS SAFES WARDROBES SHELVING CABINETS

High in Quality But Low In Price Schwabacher. Frey tarket opposite Grant Ave.

Ducoed Cars $20 PRejuvenated

Sauerbraten Kartoffel Pfannekuchen Prompt Courteon Service

Family Doctor Terms Doheny Money, Markets and Petroleum Tragedy. Act of Madman; Holdings Accumulated to History of Case Sketched Make Son Commercial Giant

History of Case Sketched LOS ANGELES, Feb. 11.—(II) LOS ANGELES, Feb. 12.—(III) LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—(III) LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(By Universal Service.)—Edward L. Do-eny Jr. was one of the richest oung men in America.

As the only son of Edward L. boheny, the California oil magnate, boheny Jr. was heir to a vast for-

Announcement of Changed Management

Tait's, Inc., operating Tait's Coffee Shops and Tait's Taverns throughout California, announce a complete change in management effective February 15th. Innovations will be made in food and service that will delight our patrons.

Mr. John Tait, Sr. has retired from active management.